

OSH for Community Organisations

Tuesday 27 March 2012 | 9:30am - 4:30pm | West Perth

Who should attend?

Any staff, managers or board members of community organisations who wish to know what the law expects of them, regarding occupational health and safety.

What have others said?

"The handouts will come in very handy and I enjoyed the small group activities" - 2011

"OSH can be confusing when applying to NFPs; this helped me apply OSH Acts, Regulations, etc." - 2011

Want us to come to you?

Can't come to this training, or have a number of staff who want to do this or other training courses? Why not get us to do in-house training at your premises?

For quotes and enquiries, contact WACOSS Training Coordinator, Michelle Burgermeister on 9420 7222 or michelle@wacoss.org.au

What will you learn?

1. OSH legal obligations
2. Your organisation's duty of care
3. The role of an OSH representative
4. OSH responsibilities to your volunteers and staff
5. Identifying common OSH risks in not-for-profit organisations
6. Introduction to Risk Management systems
7. Purpose and role of OSH committees
8. Implementing a culture of safety in your workplace

Need more information?

Do you wish that you had a system for identifying health and safety risks before they turn into accidents...?

This full day workshop summarises the Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) laws applying to WA.

It is designed to demystify the laws and assist your group with getting on the right track to fulfilling your duty of care obligations.
