Oh My Goodness, I'm on a Board

Your Rules, Responsibilities and Liabilities as a Board Member

If you have just been elected to a Board or Committee for the very first time, or have been on a Board for a short while and don't feel you are contributing as much as you could or should be, then this is the workshop for you.

Effective Board Members are people who understand the processes they are now part of - what you can and cannot do, what is correct, and what can be downright dangerous to the viability of the organisation.

What does it cover?

- Overview of the corporate governance framework
- Roles and responsibilities of a Board/Committee Members
- Legal requirements Board/Committee Members must comply with
- Organisation structure and frameworks for decision making
- Introduction to risk management and strategic planning
