Housing & Affordable Living Forum 12th December

WACOSS and Shelter WA present a forum of Housing & Affordable Living on the 12th of December.

Almost 90,000 households in Western Australia are in housing stress. After paying for housing costs they're at risk of financial hardship and poverty. Come hear about the latest State initiatives to boost the supply of affordable housing. This forum will also integrate the affordable housing challenge into a broader conversation around affordable living. Plus the WA Launch of the Australians for Affordable Housing national campaign!

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS - WACOSS 2012 Conference The Big Picture

The West Australian Council of Social Service has great pleasure inviting you to participate in the WACOSS 2012 Conference THE BIG PICTURE by submitting an abstract for consideration by the conference committee to present at the Conference or Cross Sectoral Collaboration Day.

The Conference will be focusing on the Big Issues for community services, the sector and civil society at large. Beyond tackling our own organisation challenges we can work collaboratively to drive change and use our collective voice to build a united civil society built on the principles of social justice and community engagement. The two day Conference follows a full day community and government networking event focused on working in collaboration to achieve a sustainable community service sector.

Community Leadership Program - Graduation

The Community Leadership Program Graduation for participants of Program 9 (2010-2011) took place on Monday, November 14 at the Subiaco Hotel. At this event, graduates were presented with their Diplomas of Management in front of their mentors, colleagues, family and friends. The guest speaker was WACOSS CEO Irina Cattalini, who spoke about the leadership lessons she has learned since completing the program herself in 2007. Jodie Smyth from UnitingCare West also spoke on behalf of the graduates, highlighting the importance of learning from her peers throughout the program.

The Community Leadership Program is delivered by WACOSS each year in partnership with MODAL – a Registered Training Organisation and business consultancy. 150 community sector leaders have already taken part in the program since its inception in 2003. If you are interested in being involved in the next program (commencing October 2012) please email training@wacoss.org.au to register your interest.

WACOSS Pre-Budget Submission for the WA State Budget 2012-13

The Western Australian Council of Social Service this week launched its submission to the 2012-13 State Budget.

The pre-budget submission focuses on building a sustainable future for the benefit of all Western Australians, particularly the most vulnerable, disadvantaged and excluded in our community.

It represents the combined knowledge and on the ground experience of front-line community services across Western Australia. Click here to read more

WACOSS AGM

WACOSS would like to thank all members and invited guests that attended the WACOSS AGM on the 10th of November at City West Receptions.

Over 60 people attended the AGM, presided by outgoing President Chris Hall. Chris Hall was farewelled with speeches from former CEO Sue Ash, fellow Board member Ian Carter and special guest Rebecca Brown. Guest speaker Minister Robyn McSweeney addressed the membership on the State governments commitment to the Community Service Sector. The AGM provided an opportunity to acknowledge the sad passing of one of our life members earlier this year, Mr Frank Cross. Frank was remembered for his long and proud history of supporting the sector as both a WACOSS member, past President and more broadly for his work across the community sector. ## WACOSS MEDIA RELEASE: WACOSS Welcomes Pay Rise Agreement 11th November

The Western Australian Council of Social Services has welcomed the announcement by the Prime Minister of an agreement with the Australian Services Union to propose significant pay rises to close the gender wage gap for community service workers.

"The Council applauds the agreement on proposed pay increases ranging from 19 – 42% for underpaid community service workers in Western Australia," said Irina Cattalini, the Council's CEO.

The gender pay gap is most pronounced in Western Australia, where women earn on average 28% less than their male counterparts as compared to a national gender pay gap of 18%.

Sector News

Funding and Contracting Reforms: Why there are changes.

If you are a not-for-profit organisation, you are likely to be aware that there are some significant changes to how these organisations receive funding and contracting. So why is this?

In December 2010 the Partnership Forum, at the request of the Premier, provided advice to the WA State Government regarding the issue of inadequate funding levels to the community sector and the need to establish both an immediate and sustainable resolution to the funding shortfall, including the need to reform contracting and implementation arrangements between the government and not-for-profit sector. ## Foodbank Survey- Help Us Get the Complete Picture on Hunger

Very little information exists on the depth and breadth of food insecurity in Australia. With your help we are looking to address this shortcoming via this survey with two main aims in mind. Firstly to better quantify the problem when raising awareness within government and amongst the Australian public and secondly to gain a better understanding of your food needs so we can improve our capacity to meet them in the future.

Looking for more office space in Mirrabooka?

Finding appropriate office space for delivering community services in Mirrabooka has been a challenge for many providers for some time.

To help address this issue CLAN WA is scoping the interest to develop a shared space for working together.

You may be looking for full time office space, weekends, or just 1-2 days/week.

Alternatively, you may be a funder possibly interested in supporting such an initiative.

Please let us know by following this link to complete a quick questionnaire (5 mins).

The space we are currently looking at is the old medical centre opposite Centrelink.

Have your say- National Regulatory System Community Housing

Public consultation in Western Australia on a National Regulatory System for community housing is now underway. The new system aims to grow the industry, create a level playing field for housing providers Australiawide, and better protect tenants through consistent national standards for providers and their services.

Visit www.nrsch.gov.au for more information, to comment or make a formal submission on the Regulatory Impact Statement. Submission period closes 5pm AEST, 20 January 2012.

Communicare Corporate Claus

We've all heard the adage - Christmas is a time of giving. This year, Communicare is appealing to WA businesses to stand with us and do just that – GIVE – this festive season.

Each year Communicare, through generous support from the community and businesses, are able to provide gifts to families for children who may not otherwise have received a gift on Christmas morning.

This year, many families are struggling under the pressure of the increasing cost of living and the number of families requiring assistance is rising, which means we are expecting greater demands for gifts this Christmas and need your help more than ever. Click here to read more

Western Australian Multicultural Community Service Awards 2012

Nominations are now open for the Western Australian Multicultural Community Service Awards 2012.

The awards recognise Western Australian individuals, organisations and businesses who have achieved excellence and innovation in advancing a multicultural society through participation, equity and promotion.

The awards provide an invaluable opportunity for us to acknowledge and celebrate the achievements of many Western Australians who have accomplished outstanding work in advancing multicultural inclusiveness and participation.

Expo of Rural Support Services- Wheatbelt and Great Southern

Rural Community Support Service and the Town of Narrogin would like to invite you and your staff to an Expo of Rural Support Services in the Wheatbelt and Great Southern to create new networks and strengthen existing inter-agency collaborations. Whilst we appreciate the time pressures that services are under, we have planned the Expo as an opportunity to take the time out to "recharge our batteries" by building stronger networks and gaining a more comprehensive understanding of other services, therefore allowing us to be more effective in our work and to create a seamless referral system. If your service delivery area covers any part of this region and in particular rural communities we hope you are able to join us.
